

IT support

This role involves assisting the ID Manager in supporting IT throughout our main office and at outreach. A background in network administration, telecoms, office systems and general IT support would be welcome. One day a week.